ON DECK WITH BRETT

Summer is once again upon us and it's almost everyone's favorite time of year, it's the season of warm weather and cold drinks, the season of family, friends and lazy lunches in the sun. The festive season also brings frantic shopping sprees and relaxing coffees, catching up with old friends and making new ones, this is the time of the year that the coast really comes to life. Summer and the festive season at the coast is definitely an exciting experience, with a host of activities and an influx of travelers and visitors from far and near.

But to me this time of year in Namibia has always been about spending quality time with family and friends, during the mania and routine of the year a person can lose sight of the important things in life and now is the perfect time to set things back in perspective. Enjoy a cold beer with friends at the end of a long hot day; feel the fresh, salty, ocean breeze on your skin and the warmth of the African sun on your face.

With the year winding down we would also like to take the opportunity to thank some of the dedicated, long time staff members of The Tug Restaurant with Timoteus Nangolo serving a whopping 20 years with us. Thank you Timoteus for all the years of fastidious service - Please see our Facebook page for info on our Long Service Staff awards, for a full listing of staff names and photos.

Next year brings a lot of exciting new adventures to The Tug Restaurant, we're planning some changes and Chef Immanuel is once again hard at work creating fabulous new dishes for you to enjoy.

I wish you all the best for your festive season and lots of sun, laughter, happiness and blissful days. See you next year!

Cheers - Brett
